International Labour Network of Solidarity and Struggle Deeply Disappointed by the Agreement Between Syriza Government and Israel

On July 19, the Greece's Defence Minister, Panos Kammenos, signed a military cooperation agreement with their Israeli counterparts.

The signed "status of forces" accord makes Greece the only country other than the USA to have formal military alliance with Israel. This agreement signed by Kammenos, a representative of the Greek government led by the left wing Syriza party, is a pact through which the Greek government formally commits to the assistance of the Israeli state in its continued occupation and colonization of the Palestinian people.

The International Labour Network of Solidarity and Struggle, is deeply disappointed by this agreement signed in the name of the Syriza government. Syriza, nominally committed to principles of International solidarity, had previously strongly criticized the long standing military and economic ties between Greece and Israel.

The ruling parties manifesto in the January election included a commitment to abolish military cooperation with the Israeli state. Alex Tsipiras, the leader of Syriza, himself was among Greek activists who were scheduled to board a Gaza-bound flotilla in 2011 which was stopped by Greek authorities. During the Israeli war on Gaza, Tsipiras joined a demonstration in Athens and denounced the slaughter of Gazans on the hands of the Israeli occupation forces (IOF), saying: "When civilians and children are killed at beaches facing the same sea that borders the European continent, we cannot remain passive, because if this happens on the other side of the Mediterranean today, it can happen on our side tomorrow,".

The International Labour Network of Solidarity, fully endorses and respect the BDS movement guidelines, and have no relationship with the racist Israeli trade union - the Histadrut. We stand in solidarity with the Greek working class in their struggle against brutal austerity measures, and call on the Greek government to adhere to principles of International solidarity, to respect its own guidelines and abolish any form of military and economic cooperation with the Israeli state.
